Week 13 Parashat Ki Tavo / פרשת כי-תבוא

Magen Avot is a new Shul and community supported by Chief Rabbi Ephraim Mirvis and the United Synagogue. Our inaugural service took place on Friday 12 June 2015 in the presence of the Chief Rabbi and over three hundred attendees. Highlights so far include a talk and seuda shlishit with H.E. Ambassador Daniel Taub, Chief Rabbi Ephraim Mirvis speaking about his visit with H.M. The Queen to the site of the Bergen-Belsen prisoner of war and concentration camp, and hosting a community Seuda Shlishit with guest speaker Dr Tamra Wright (Director of Academic Studies at LSJS and a specialist in 20th century Jewish philosophy).

Yom Tov Services

We are taking bookings for the Yamim Noraim (Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services). Over this period we will be based in the Nancy Rubin School Hall. To reserve seats please email info@magenavot.com.

Children's Programming (NEW TIME!)

After a summer break children's programming returns this week at the new time of 10:45am with Magen Minis (recommended for age 5 and under) consisting of davening presented in the form of songs and activities. NB: Children must be accompanied by one parent. Magen Maxis (recommended for age 5 to 10 year olds) is a special davening service focusing on bringing to life the Shabbat tefillot with an emphasis on interactivity and singing. Children are rewarded with raffle tickets and prizes. Parents are welcome to drop off their children at the door. We run two separate Magen Munchies, one for the Minis and one for the Maxis, consisting of a kiddush accompanied by stories and activities. Children attending Magen Maxis will be brought back into Shul by the organisers at 11:30am. This week's Magen Munchies is kindly sponsored by Florence and Alex Weinberg to thank all the people involved in the children's services for all their hard work. Please check the website for further sponsorship opportunities at www.magenavot.com/sponsorships.
