Guest Speaker: Davidi Perel, Mayor of Gush Etzion

Magen Avot are delighted to welcome Davidi Perel as our guest speaker this week. Davidi Perel is the Mayor of Gush Etzion having dedicated the last seventeen years to educational leadership, administrative action and establishing new communities in the spirit of Zionism and on behalf of the people of Israel and in particular, Gush Etzion. Perel served as Vice President of Makor Chaim Institutions under Rabbi Adin Steinzaltz and was CEO of the Tekoa Hesder Yeshiva. He was also personal assistant to the late Rabbi Chanan Porat, renewing and expanding activities at Rachel's Tomb and helping to establish an army school in Samaria. Perel served as executive director of the community of Beit Chagai and has been a senior officer and treasurer of World Bnei Akiva. Before being elected as mayor Perel served as CEO of Netiv Meir Yeshiva and was Chairman of the Community Council of Alon Shvut and executive member of the Gush Etzion Regional Council. Throughout his career Davidi Perel has successfully worked with government ministries, the Jewish Agency and other public agencies overcoming numerous crises and being a motivational force for growth and development.
