Tzom Tammuz / צום תמוז

The Seventeenth of Tammuz (Hebrew: שבועה עשר בתמוז, Shiv'ah Asar b'Tammuz) is a Jewish fast day commemorating the breach of the walls of Jerusalem before the destruction of the Second Temple. It falls on the 17th day of the Hebrew month of Tammuz and marks the beginning of the three-week mourning period leading up to Tisha B'Av. Like other minor fasts, Tzom Tammuz begins at dawn (first light) at 1:04am this Sunday 1 July and ends at nightfall (full dark) at 10:20pm. There will be Mincha/Maariv on Sunday at 7:30pm at the home of Family Solomon, 55 Downage.

Recently an email was sent to all members explaining our ambition to eventually appoint a rabbinic couple. We announced our intention to begin this search and to make sure we select the right people to fill these roles. We are a diverse and multifaceted community so we would like to carefully consider criteria that are reflective of the hopes and expectations of a broad cross-section of the community. Whether you just wish to share some suggestions and ideas or actually take an active role in planning or organising we'd love to hear from you. Please register your interest by emailing: info@magenavot.com.
