Kol Nidre Appeal

If you need to be reminded what you pledged for the Kol Nidre Appeal over Yom Kippur, or how to make payment, please contact our treasurer Cecil Taitz at the following email address: treasurer@magenavot.com.

School Areas

We have been asked to kindly request that children to not play or hang around past the out-of-bounds areas within the school property. There are yellow stands with signs which are not to be removed and must be respected. Please can we ask adults to help with suitable supervision for their children at all times during services. Children can either be sat in Shul with a responsible adult or in children's services from 10:45am.

Children's Library

In recognition of the hard work of Ruth and Esther in organising and running the Magen Maxis services, Magen Avot are launching an appeal to start our own "Children's Library". Ruth Ehreich has kindly agreed to arrange the purchase of the books. Anybody wishing to contribute should send any donations to the Treasurer (Cecil Taitz) indicating that it is for the library. Dedications for individual books (approximately £18 each) can be made.

Oneg Shabbat

Children, women and men are invited to an Oneg Shabbat with Rabbi Chananel Rosen of Tel Aviv Yakar next Friday night 2nd November. The event is kindly hosted at the home of Julia and Daniel Greenberg at 9 Holders Hill Crescent.

Stone Setting

The stone setting for Cherry Cornell's sister, Marilyn Cornell, will be at Bushey Cemetery on 11th November from 11:00am.

BST to GMT

Please remember to put your clocks back this Sunday morning at 2:00am (becoming 1:00am). This means that you gain an hour of sleep. Please support the Sunday morning minyan at 8:20am.
