Arba Minim Sale with Yaacov Wolf

See our poster on page two of this newsletter for details on how to order and where to pick up from.

Thanks

Thanks to all involved with the planning, setup, running and clear up for Yom Tov. Thanks also to those who led services and gave shiurim. This was an immense effort and a huge success!

Thanks also to our 3-T Project organisers and speakers. This was an incredible initiative and all shiurim are now available online.

Kol Nidre Appeal

The Kol Nidre appeal is fully detailed this year inside the HaMagen magazine. A copy of the magazine is provided on every table in Shul. Please give generously!

Children on Yom Kippur

To maintain decorum and social distancing policies we ask all parents to make sure their children are always seated with them. It is parents' responsibility to supervise their own children but we must ask that parents make sure the movement from men's to women's sections is kept to a minimum as it is both disturbing and may cause cross contamination as the children walk through touching the tables and chairs. Unfortunately, due to restrictions we cannot provide lunch for children. There will however be a break when lunch can be given at home.

Yom Kippur Guidelines (Rabbi Kenigsberg)

- Vidui (confession) is said at Mincha on erev Yom Kippur, as found in the Machzor
- The Seudah Hamafseket should be eaten after Mincha
- Candles should be lit by 6:33pm. Remember to light a 25-hour candle as well (to be used for Havdalah – see below)
- The mitzvah of Tosefet Yom Kippur means that the fast and prohibitions of the day should be accepted before sunset (ie. At candle-lighting time or just before)
- One who is seriously unwell would not be required to fast – Rabbinic and medical advice should be sought on a case-by-case basis, ahead of time, in order to establish who is exempt from fasting, and under what circumstances.
- Washing for pleasure is one of the prohibitions of Yom Kippur, however one can and should wash their hands as usual in order to prevent the spread of coronavirus.
- Shacharit for Yom Kippur will begin at 9am from HaMelech. As on Rosh Hashana, Brachot and Pesukei deZimrah should be recited at home prior to coming to shul.
- In order to maintain social distancing, this year the entire congregation will remain in shul when Yizkor is said. Those who do not recite Yizkor should use this time to recite other tefillot.
- The fast goes out at 7:32pm. At the conclusion of Yom Kippur, Havdalah is made over wine/grape juice and a candle (without besamim). The bracha on fire can only be recited on a candle that was burning the entire Yom Kippur (נר ששבת). If one does not have such a candle, this bracha is omitted.

Brief Guidelines for those davening at home

The Shulchan Aruch writes (Orach Chaim 1:4): טוב מעט תחנונים בכוונה, מהרבות בלא כוונה. Better few supplications with concentration than much without concentration.

There is no requirement for one davening alone on Yom Kippur to recite the entire machzor. Whilst the essential, basic structure of tefillah should be kept (Brachot, Pesukei deZimra, Birkot Kriat Shema and Amidah), regarding additional prayers and supplications one should select those which will enhance one's concentration and add meaning to the tefillot of the day.

- A central component of the five tefillot of Yom Kippur is the Vidui (confession). Vidui is recited 10 times over the course of Yom Kippur – once at the end of each personal amidah, and again during the chazzan's repetition or as part of slichot following the amidah. It is proper to follow this practice of saying vidui 10 times even when davening alone at home.
- Slichot, recited during Maariv and Neilah, may be said by an individual davening at home. However, the 13 attributes of mercy (Hashem, Hashem kel rachum vechanun...) are only recited with a minyan. Alternatively, one davening alone may read them according to the Ta'amei HaMikra as if they were leynung from the Torah. Additionally, portions of slichot in Aramaic should be skipped.
- Kaddish, Kedusha, Barchu, Torah Reading and Haftara and the Chazzan's repetition are not recited without a minyan. Following the Amidah of Shacharit and Mussaf there are many powerful and moving piyyutim which are recited as part of the Chazzan's repetition. These may be said or sung by an individual and can greatly enhance one's tefillah, but there is no obligation to do so.
- Avinu Malkeinu can be recited by one praying alone.
- Ne'ilah should begin before Shkiah (6:44pm). Traditionally, at the conclusion of Ne'ilah the shofar is blown, but there is no requirement if one is unable to do so.
