Rebbetzin Debow holds a doctorate from Bar Ilan University's School of Education. Her research focuses on sexuality and intimacy education in the Orthodox community for which she received both the President's Award and a Schupf Fellowship.

March of the Living (April 2022)

MARCH OF THE LIVING

We would like to encourage participation at this year's March of the Living to our members at Magen Avot. There are some student (18+) and Young Adult (under 35) places left and a very limited number of adult spaces. We would therefore like to offer participation on a first come first served basis. Costs are as follows:

- Student/Youth Movement (18 to 35): 24-29 April – £449
- Young Adults (18 to 35): 24-29 April – £599
- Adults (36+): 25-28 April – £1499

Applications need to be made by Monday 28 February. Please register your interest at: <https://www.marchoftheliving.org.uk>.

!! NEXT WEEK !!

Horim V'Yeladim certificates will be presented by Rabbi Kenigsberg to the children who attended this last season. Please make sure to be in Shul on Shabbat for the presentations!

Sunday 13 March – SAVE THE DATE

Our next "Breakfast Club" will be Sunday 13 March with speaker Rabbi Michael Pollak who will be speaking on: "Is hoping to kill Amalekites moral?". We are currently looking for a sponsor for this event. There will be activities for children at the same time as the speaker, including arts and crafts and Mishloach Manot packing for US Chessed so please come along with the whole family! We are looking for a volunteer to help run this. For sponsorship or volunteering offers please contact us at info@magenavot.com.

Rabbi Michael Pollak is a graduate of Hevron Yeshiva in Jerusalem and studied philosophy at LSE. He has held a series of high profile communal positions and is a seasoned Talmud Daf Yomi teacher. Rabbi Pollak has spoken several times at Magen Avot, and we look forward to welcoming him again just before Purim.

Wednesday 16 and Thursday 17 March – SAVE THE DATES

Thursday 31 March – SAVE THE DATE

Daniel Greenberg is scheduled to speak alongside Archbishop Nikitas Lioulias at a Zoom seminar run by the Council of Christians and Jews on the topic of human trafficking and modern slavery on Thursday 31 March from 7.00pm. Daniel will be talking about issues around slavery including the plight of the Uyghurs. More details will be released nearer the time.
