Second Night Shavuot – Rabbi Kenigsberg

❖ There is a general prohibition to prepare from one day of Yom Tov to the next. One would therefore be forbidden to perform any preparations on the first day of Yom Tov for a second day Yom Tov meal taking place after nightfall. This is our general practice on other Chagim.

❖ Since Shavuot takes place in the summer months when nightfall occurs very late, we will be bringing in the second day early, as on a regular Shabbat. Mincha will take place at 7.15pm followed by Ma'ariv. Candles may be lit from 7.29pm.

❖ Since the Yom Tov meal is eaten whilst it is still daylight, preparation can be made in the afternoon, as it is technically considered part of the first day.

❖ If however, one waited until nightfall to daven, then all preparations for the second day would have to be delayed until after 10.17pm.

Monday 6 June

Leining: Dan Artman | Drasha: Rabbi Kenigsberg

Kiddush on second day Shavuot is kindly sponsored by Esther and Simon Bentley to mark Simon's forthcoming birthday.
