Facilities for Children on Yom Kippur

To maintain decorum, we have arranged for the Bet Hamidrash in OYH to be available for children to play/eat in. It is parents' responsibility to supervise their own children. If you have toys or board games that you can provide for the children to use, please bring them. There will also be a light lunch for children at 12.15pm. We ask that children do not eat in Shul.

Message from JWA

This Yom Kippur, we are honoured to be chosen as your charity for the Magen Avot Kol Nidrei Appeal. As we approach this time of contemplation, our thoughts turn towards those in need. The Jewish women and children we work with are some of the most at risk in our community. Your support of our services is not only welcomed, but vital to helping those who are going through abuse and sexual violence. Throughout 2022, Jewish Women's Aid has continued its core work of supporting Jewish women and girls, and their children, with a high-quality domestic abuse and sexual violence support service. In the first 6 months of 2022, our advocacy and therapeutic support teams helped 193 women and girls and the numbers continue to rise. Depending on the individual circumstances of each woman who reaches out to us, our professional staff team offers a wide range of services, including free counselling, children's therapy, safety planning, risk reduction, emotional support, legal options, benefits and advice. Funds raised in this appeal will go towards these services. They also include our helpline and webchat and trained support workers, specialising in working with women who have been through abuse and sexual violence. We also provide an outreach and prevention education programme in synagogues, schools, universities and workplaces on healthy relationships, working to create a culture of consent across our community. Our team continues to provide prevention education across youth settings in the Jewish community. This year, we delivered 106 age-appropriate workshops and assemblies to 2,442 young people in mainly Jewish schools in London and Manchester. Your donations will also help us as we look ahead to our Jewish Women's Aid Shabbat. This takes place this year on 2-3rd December 2022 and we'd love you to join us. It is a truly cross-communal event, supported by Office of the Chief Rabbi, United Synagogue, Reform Judaism, Liberal Judaism, Masorti Judaism, S&P Sephardi Community, Jewish Leadership Council and the Board of Deputies. The goal is to focus our community on creating a culture of healthy relationships and consent. This Yom Kippur, we will use any donations to help to reduce and end violence against Jewish women and girls. As the cost-of-living crisis unfolds, we are fully committed to meet the increased need from our community, with your generous support. Thank you to the Magen Avot community for donating to Jewish Women's Aid and helping us support the hundreds of Jewish women and their children who deserve a life free from abuse this Yom Kippur.
