BOOK CLUB: The Inaugural meeting is rescheduled for 27 November at 8pm at the home of Joan and Julian Pollard (55 Hendon Hall Court). We welcome all members of the community. In the future you get to choose books which have entertained, educated or moved you. Our first book is: "All the Light We Cannot See" by Anthony Doerr. To attend this or future meetings please register at the link below no later than Monday 20 November: <https://tinyurl.com/mabooknov23>.

Synopsis: The story is about a blind French girl (Marie-Laure) and a German boy (Werner) whose paths collide in occupied France as both try to survive the devastation of World War II. It alternates between multiple perspectives but mainly we read it from their point of views. Marie-Laure lives in Paris near the Museum of Natural History, where her father works. When she is twelve, the Nazis occupy Paris and father and daughter flee to the walled citadel of Saint-Malo, where Marie-Laure's reclusive great uncle lives in a tall house by the sea. With them they carry what might be the museum's most valuable and dangerous jewel. In a mining town in Germany, Werner Pfennig, an orphan, grows up with his younger sister, enchanted by a crude radio they find that brings them news and stories from places they have never seen or imagined. Werner becomes an expert at building and fixing these crucial new instruments and is enlisted to use his talent to track down the resistance.

Kiddush Food and Drink

Can we ask parents and children to make sure to not take any kiddush food or drink outside the hall. It is becoming increasingly difficult to keep the school tidy when food is left uneaten in classrooms and hallways to be found by the school on the following Monday morning.
