BOOK CLUB

Message from Julian Pollard: The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Monday 5 February at 8.00pm (prompt). We will be reading "Commonwealth" by Ann Patchett and the discussion will be led by Tali Daimant.

The novel begins with events that destroy two marriages and creates a reluctantly blended family. Spanning 50 years it tells the lives of the six children whose lives were disrupted and how they intertwined. It was a finalist in the 2016 National Book Critics Circle Award for Fiction and has received huge critical acclaim.

This meeting will be held on-line and a link for the meeting can be accessed here: <http://tinyurl.com/mabookfeb24> (Meeting ID: 738 0667 9657 and Passcode: 4qHkSx). We look forward to a stimulating discussion. Everyone is welcome.

NB: Copies of "Commonwealth" have recently sold out at Waterstones in Brent Cross so you may have to order from there on 020 3713 5169 or Hampstead branch on 020 7794 1098.
